REMARKS OF REPORTING OFFICER

This officer has reached a very high standard of ability and knowledge and has always proved himself as thorough and strict in matters of discipline. As a section officer his leadership and judgment has been of the highest order.

His knowledge of his work and Machine Gunnery is very good, he has perfect confidence and tact in the instructing of others in all classes of work and training. He has had no previous staff experience but with training should prove a useful officer.

He has for several periods carried out the duties of Adjutant to this Squadron in a very efficient manner.
